

BCARC Christmas Gift Exchange Rules 2011

The gift exchange is open to all members and guests. In order to receive a gift, one must bring a gift. Gifts should be useful items that have a value of $10 or more. A gift can come from your junk box or can be purchased and should be radio or computer related.

Gifts should be wrapped in Christmas paper and need not have “to” or “from” tags or other identification on them. Be sure to remember which gifts you brought so you don’t select your own gift!

If your spouse and/or children bring a gift, that will maximize your “take” from the exchange and may enable you to take home that “prize” gift that everyone covets. Those that bring gifts will be asked to draw a number, which will determine the order of gift selection and opening.

The gift opening will proceed as follows:

Number 1 chooses a gift from the gift table, opens it, and MUST show it to everyone present.

Number 2 can choose a gift from the table or he can take Number 1’s gift if he thinks that is a better gift than he could find amongst the unopened gifts. If number 2 chooses a gift from the table, he opens it and MUST show it to everyone present.

If Number 2 takes the gift from Number 1, then Number 1 goes back to the gift table and selects another gift, opens it and MUST show it to everyone.

Number 3 can choose a gift from the table, Number 1, or Number 2 and follow the same procedures listed above.

This same procedure is followed until the final person selects the last gift.

The third owner of a gift gets to keep it. An individual cannot retake a gift that was taken from him. Gifts must be able to be carried by one person. Gifts cannot consist of spouses, children or pets. Any participant bringing a gift making ticking noises, leaking suspicious liquids or emitting noxious vapors will be subject to body scan and full pat-down. Refusal of a body scan and pat-down will require a full strip search by the club sergeant at arms.

After all gifts have been opened, it is acceptable to trade your gift to anyone who is willing to trade with you. Be creative in the selection and packaging of your gift. This event is supposed to be fun so feel free to “ham it up” a bit to add some humor to the evening. Walk around and look over the gifts that are available for taking. Look at everything ... even those items that you have no intention of taking. Do what you can to “fake out” the crowd and when the time comes, pounce on that treasure! Feel free to take lots of pictures to share with the newsletter editor.
